Dear Residents,

As 2015 dwindles down and 2016 rolls in, many will set goals for the upcoming year. Each year, my goal is to try something completely new and physically challenging. A few years ago, my goal was to complete a marathon, and with a group of friends we all ran the San Francisco marathon. To date, this has been the most physically challenging event I’ve partaken in. Based on how difficult the marathon was, I have the utmost respect for our feature family father, James Burke, having completed numerous Ironmans. I should also add, that at the end of my marathon, a rather handsome fireman handed us our “medal,” being a commemorative Tiffany & Company necklace. This might have been the entire reason I decided to even register for that race.

Each year goals and priorities are adjusted based on various life changes. With a child now in K4, my goal for 2016 is to walk or bike him to school as often as the weather allows. A new section of Bay Leaves for 2016 is our “It Takes A Village…” area, which will feature short community stories about neighbors or friends helping each other. Often times within our community, there are numerous heartwarming stories about people coming together to help our village members. Examples include a neighbor babysitting someone’s kids last minute, chasing a lost dog to return it to the owner, or starting a fundraiser for a family in need. These stories can be anonymous, or can be used as a way to publicly thank people for their help. If you are interested in having your story shared, please send me an email.

Best of luck with achieving your own goals for 2016, and maybe I’ll see you on my walks to and from school with my son.

Cheers,
Christine McBride

Swim, bike, run. All three sports that most people enjoy and partake in, but few go the extreme distances required for an Ironman competition. Starting off with a 2.4 mile swim, followed by a 112-mile bike ride, and ending with a full marathon run of 26.2 miles. For Whitefish Bay resident James Burke, he has not only completed a number of Ironmans, but this past October, actually won the Louisville Ironman. Out of 2,538 participants, James crossed that difficult finish line first, with a victorious smile on his face and arms thrown up to the sky.

With the support of his family, James was able to train and accomplish fitness goals he had set for himself years ago. James and his wife Eileen live on Larkin Street with their sons Connor (6), Riley (4) and new baby Emma (7 months). The couple started dating their first week of college while attending the University of Wisconsin-Madison, after being set up by their siblings. James graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering and was also on the college swim team for two years. James currently works as a general manager of the Milwaukee Branch of Johnson Controls. Eileen graduated with a communications degree, and worked as an assistant buyer and financial planner before becoming a stay-at-home-mom after her children were born.

James was inspired to compete in Ironmans after he took their sons to watch the Madison Ironman in 2012. Completing an Ironman was on the top of his bucket list, and after numerous conversations with Eileen over the time commitment, they made the joint decision for him to enter the 2013 Madison Ironman. Obviously having young children adds another dimension to the training schedule required. James put together a training program making use of his swimming background, and listening to numerous podcasts about triathlons to learn any extra tips.

He did fantastic in his first race in Madison, and as a result, qualified for the World Championship Ironman held in Kona, Hawaii in October 2014. James had a strong cheering section since nearly 40 family and close friends traveled to Kona to watch him race. They named themselves “Team Burke” and all wore green shirts on race day. James placed 4th in his age group, 9th amateur and 42nd overall out of 2,500 racers. “Ironmans are always very inspiring because you meet athletes of various backgrounds from all over the world with their own unique story. Some are cancer survivors, amputees, or have lost a significant amount of weight. It is inspirational to be among these athletes and hear their stories firsthand,” said James.

A few weeks after the race in Kona, the couple learned Eileen was pregnant with their third child. As a family they made the decision that James would do one more race, being the Louisville Ironman in October 2015. Since their daughter Emma was born in July 2015, James had to alter his training schedule to accommodate their growing family. He would partake in shorter races throughout the summer and early morning workouts became key, as that was the only time that he could truly commit to training. James does most of his runs around Whitefish Bay, and when the weather allows he does some of his training swims in Lake Michigan. He also partakes in a weekly group bike ride that leaves Whitefish Bay twice a week from the middle school at 5:15am and is a 35-mile fast, hard pace ride.

“We found that nutrition plays a key role in his trainings, so I’ve educated myself on better nutrition and cooking healthier meals for our entire family,” said Eileen.

The day of the Louisville Ironman brought perfect weather conditions and James felt great throughout his entire race. “Breaking the tape at the finish line was an experience that I will never forget, complete euphoria,” said James as reminiscing on his big win that day. The win in Louisville qualifies him to compete again in the World Championship Ironman in Kona. The “Team Burke” will be making a second appearance in Kona in 2016 to cheer James on during the race.

With a new year starting, many set fitness goals of all levels. James’ advice to anyone interested in entering a triathlon is “Don’t be fearful or intimidated by the distance or a perceived weakness in one of the three disciplines (swim, bike, run). Commit to a race, put a training schedule in place and be flexible throughout.”

The Burke family have owned their Whitefish Bay house for 8 years and adore their street because of the wonderful neighbors on it. There are lots of young families, and playdates in backyards with the neighbors are a daily occurrence. Eileen says, “We jokingly call ourselves the 'Larkin Street Gang' and most of us either walk together or ride bikes to school. It is the perfect place to raise our family.”
After the big win in Louisville, the neighbors surprised the Burke family by decorating the garage and front door to celebrate. They went with a Hawaiian theme because James had qualified to participate in the 2016 Kona Ironman. It was a wonderful surprise for James to see upon his arrival home that his neighbors cared enough to help him celebrate his success.

WHITEFISH BAY BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT

by Karen Mathu

Happy New Year!

Welcome 2016! The Whitefish Bay Business Improvement District thanks the many volunteers and community members that came out to celebrate the holiday season with the Whitefish Bay Holiday Stroll and we’re honored that the event is a part of our holiday traditions. This special evening would not have been possible without you or our sponsors and volunteers and we are very grateful for the community’s continued support. The parade was presented by BMO Harris Bank, Ellenbecker Investment Group, Ideal Landscaping, Sendik’s Food Market, and Yellow Wood, along with major sponsors of Breadsmith, Elements Massage, Massage Envy, Mathnasium, Mindy DeHate Real Estate Division of Keller Williams North Shore, Placesetters, PNC Bank and United Methodist Church of Whitefish Bay. Thanks, also, from the merchants on Silver Spring Drive in Whitefish Bay. We greatly appreciate your patronage throughout the year.

As you make your new year’s resolutions, we invite you to include shopping locally on your list! Studies show that when you buy from an independent, locally owned business, significantly more of your money is used to make purchases from other local business – continuing to strengthen the economic base of our community. Plus, our local businesses support may communities group. Did you know that non-profit organizations receive an average 250% more support from small business owners rather than they do from large businesses? Plus, our unique shops keep our community unique, reduce environmental impact, provide local jobs, and provide great service!!

Keep up with your amazing local businesses and so much more through regular emails from the shopping district using this QR code or by visiting www.shopwhitefishbay.com. Or follow us on Twitter @ShopWFB and Facebook!

MILWAUKEE AREA DOMESTIC ANIMAL CONTROL COMMISSION (MADACC)

By Karen Sparapani

NOW is the Time to Get Your Dog or Cat License!

Milwaukee Area Domestic Animal Control (MADACC) wants to remind all pet owners that all dog/cat licenses expire on December 31st each year and you have until March 31st to renew your license without a penalty fee. All dogs and cats in Milwaukee County are required to be licensed each year.

Milwaukee County residents get an extra benefit if their dog or cat is found while wearing their current license. MADACC provides one “free ride home” each year to animals with a current license. If we pick up your animal, and we can reach you, we will either deliver the animal back to your residence or meet you at our facility and return your best friend to you with no charges to you at all. Depending on where you live, a trip to MADACC can cost up to $135 for just being impounded as a stray on the day we take in the animal. That makes purchasing a license well worth the cost!

Licensing Fees for 2016 are as follows for all dogs and cats 5 months and older:

- Altered animals (spayed or neutered): $12 (After April 1, there is a late fee of $6 assessed)
- Intact animals (ones that can still breed): $24 (After April 1, there is a late fee of $12 assessed)

You can purchase your license in person at MADACC, located at 3839 W. Burnham Street, West Milwaukee or you can purchase your license online by visiting our website www.madacc.org. Call 414-649-8640 for more information or to schedule a low cost rabies vaccine appointment where you can purchase your license at the same time.

Lifestyle Portraits
Memories of the Whitefish Bay Fire Department

In 1981, Pat Reislbach of Whitefish Bay interviewed Whitefish Bay Fire Chief Joseph Casal upon his retirement about his 47-year career as a Whitefish Bay firefighter. This brief excerpt about the Fire Department is from Casal’s reminiscences of his career.

Chief Joseph (Joe) Casal’s family moved to Whitefish Bay from Shorewood in 1926 when he was 14 years old. His parents built a home at 1019 Barrett Pl. (now called Meadow Pl.), which was between Kimbark Pl. on the east and the Northwestern Railroad tracks (about where Marlborough Dr. is now) on the west. There were Northwestern Railroad depots at Silver Spring Dr. and at the corner of Capitol and Wilson Drives. Casal’s uncle was an engineer for the railroad and often, by prearrangement, young Joe’s uncle would stop his train at Barrett Pl., pick Joe up and give him a ride to the Capitol Dr. depot from where Joe would walk to Shorewood High School nearly every school day for three years.

Casal graduated from Shorewood High School in 1929. He and most of his friends found it hard to find jobs in the midst of the Depression. He was an apprentice steam fitter, worked part-time at the Gerber Garage on Henry Clay St., and then joined the Whitefish Bay Forestry Department. He became a volunteer fireman in March 1934.

The Whitefish Bay Volunteer Fire Department was organized on Nov. 23, 1928. The Fire Department was originally located in back of the old Village Hall on Fleetwood Pl. There were 25 volunteer firefighters, and the average attendance at fires was 15 firefighters. Volunteers were paid $2 for each fire call. A volunteer had to own a car and a telephone – which cost $2.75 per month. Blasts from a siren tower indicated by their number the direction of the fire. In the past a volunteer auxiliary would arrive at the big fires with coffee for the firefighters.

The last volunteer firefighter served in 1946. There was an attempt to revive the volunteer force in the 1950s, but Casal said residents did not respond. The siren tower was dismantled in the early 1940s and sold to the Village of Hartland. In November 1936 Casal joined the professional firefighting force. He became Lieutenant in 1948 and Chief in 1951, retiring in 1981.

Pat Reislbach’s entire interview with Chief Casal, including his memories of Whitefish Bay as a farming community, its early businesses – some of which remain today, and the dangers of being a firefighter, including getting stuck in quicksand on Whitefish Bay’s shoreline, can be read at the “Preserving Our Past” feature at WhitefishBayNow.com.

UTILITY BILLS - ACH PAYMENTS NOW ACCEPTED

The Village now offers automatic ACH payments for your utility bills! What does that mean? It means that your utility payment can now be automatically deducted from your checking or savings account without you writing out a check.

How does it work? You will receive your tri-annual utility bill by mail or email like usual. The amount due on your utility bill will be automatically deducted from your account on the due date of your utility bill.

To sign up for this service, fill out an Automatic Payment Authorization Form and return it, along with a voided check, to Angel Rice at Village Hall. Visit the Village website or contact Angel for further information on this new service. You can find the Automatic Payment Authorization Form on the Village website or request a form by email to a.rice@wfbvillage.org or by phone 414-962-6690 x118.

LOCAL SEWER RATE INCREASE

On Nov. 16, 2015 the Village Board adopted the Village’s 2016 budget. Included in the budget is a 6% increase to the local sewer user charge. Effective January 1, 2016, the rate increased from $3.32 per 100 cubic feet to $3.52 per 100 cubic feet. Residents receive utility bills on a staggered tri-annual basis (three bills a year for a four month billing period). Depending on the billing cycle, residents will see the new rate reflected on their bills beginning in March, April and June.

How does the sanitary sewer system work?

As you flush your toilet or do your dishes, wastewater leaves your property via an underground sanitary lateral. These sanitary laterals connect to a local sanitary sewer main. These local sanitary sewer mains flow by gravity downstream to the Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewage District (MMSD) interceptor sewer. This interceptor sewer conveys sewage to Jones Island treatment plant where it is treated and processed.

What do my sewer user charges pay for?

The Sewer Utility accounts for the costs associated with the Village’s collection and conveyance of wastewater from utility users. Revenue generated from usage fees is used to maintain the public sanitary sewer infrastructure, as well as the costs associated to treat the wastewater. Usage fees are calculated based on water consumption and connection to the sanitary sewer system.

NORTH SHORE FIRE AND RESCUE

BE WARM AND SAFE THIS WINTER!
By Lieutenant Dan Tyk, North Shore Fire/Rescue Community Relations Officer

Did you know that half of all home-heating fires are reported during the months of December, January and February? As we move into the coldest part of the year the National Fire Protection Agency (NFPA) has some very helpful tips for safely keeping warm at home:

- Keep anything that can burn at least three-feet away from heating equipment, like the furnace, fireplace, wood stove, or portable space heater.
- Have a three-foot “kid-free zone” around open fires and space heaters.
- Never use your oven to heat your home.
- Have a qualified professional install stationary space heating equipment, water heaters or central heating equipment according to the local codes and manufacturer’s instructions.
- Have heating equipment and chimneys cleaned and inspected every year by a qualified professional.
- Remember to turn portable heaters off when leaving the room or going to bed.
- Always use the right kind of fuel, specified by the manufacturer, for fuel burning space heaters.
- Make sure the fireplace has a sturdy screen to stop sparks from flying into the room. Ashes should be cool before putting them in a metal container, and the container should be a safe distance away from your home.
- Be sure you have working carbon monoxide (CO) and smoke alarms located on every level of your home. In addition, smoke alarms should also be placed inside and outside of every sleeping area.
- Test your alarms monthly and change batteries at least every six months when you change your clocks for Daylight Savings.

In addition to these tips, it is also important that you ensure your air intake and exhaust for your furnace remains clear at all times. This is especially important following heavy snowfall or strong winds; as snowdrifts can quickly block these pipes preventing proper clean air intake and exhaust of carbon monoxide.

Also, you should never operate a gas-powered heater or generator inside the home, as dangerous levels of carbon monoxide, a colorless, odorless, and tasteless, but fatal gas, can build up. Finally, it can sometimes be compelling to let your car warm up inside your garage; however, this will also cause dangerous levels of carbon monoxide to be trapped inside. Always pull your car outside before letting it warm up to ensure proper venting.

We hope everyone has a warm and safe winter. To learn more about the programs or services offered by North Shore Fire/Rescue, visit www.nsfire.org or call our Community Risk Reduction Bureau at 414-357-0113.
