Tips to Make Sure Your Jewelry is Covered

BY ANDREW MCCABE, ANDREWMCCABE@ALLSTATE.COM

Most homeowners, renters, or condo insurance policies limit coverage for personal items such as jewelry, watches and furs to between $500 and $2,500, depending on the policy. Jewelry like engagement rings, necklaces, bracelets or earrings that exceed that amount may need additional coverage to help ensure they’re protected. Allstate’s Scheduled Personal Property (SPP) product covers most valuable items, like jewelry, against perils such as fire, theft and loss.

In addition to Scheduled Personal Property coverage you will want to make sure that your jewelry is appraised every 5 years and that you have a good inventory of your items. A recent appraisal will not only provide details on the quality of the piece, but will also provide a current replacement value in the event that you lose the item and it needs to be completely replaced.

Some pieces hold sentimental value that can never be replaced, but when people choose proper insurance coverage on jewelry, it gives them confidence and peace of mind that they are financially protected if the unexpected happens.

Whether the jewelry has been in your family for generations or it’s a recent gift securing the right coverage will give you the protection peace of mind so you can wear your jewelry proudly and confidently.

If you have received a gift of jewelry this holiday season or Valentine’s Day you might want to consider insuring it. Many people don’t wear their jewelry, or are hesitant to do so, because they are afraid they might lose it. This doesn’t have to be the case...

I can help protect your sled and your winter. I live, work and play here just like you. And I can help you get the protection you need for your sled and much more.

Call me today to see how you can save up to 50% on Allstate Snowmobile Insurance.

Dear Residents,

With Valentine’s Day quickly approaching, there will be last minute trips to the store to purchase a card or the traditional box of chocolates. While both are great gifts, I did want to share a Valentine’s present that I gave my husband a few years ago, and has since become a favorite item in our house.

While the gift could be considered crafty, it is truly the easiest gift to create, and should not become a “Pinterest Fail” for you! First, find a nice frame, typically 5x7 inches works best for this project. Print off a sheet that says “I Love You Because...” which can be found through a simple Google search, or just created on your own. Take the sheet of paper, cut to fit the frame, include a few dry erase markers and voilà, your gift is complete. With a dry erase marker you can write on the glass frame and later erase and write something else a few days later.

The rules of the frame are simple. First, keep it in an open and frequently used area of the house so it will be seen on a daily basis. We keep ours in the kitchen, and friends often comment on what a sweet tradition it is. Second, each person needs to write one message per week to the other person. Finally, written messages need to rotate from one to another. An example would be that my husband left me the note “You planned an awesome Disney vacation for our family” on Monday, and come Thursday I wrote “You vacuumed the stairs,” to him. While some of these notes might have more significance, the message remains that your partner did something nice, and you are appreciating them for it. I will fully admit that the year I gave this to my husband it was because February 14th had snuck up on me, and I needed a quick gift to exchange. Never did I think this would actually become a staple in our house, relationship, and our favorite gift to give couples as one of their wedding presents. Consider trying it out and hopefully you will enjoy it as much as we have over the years.

Cheers,

Christine McBride

When strolling around Whitefish Bay, one will encounter a lot of walkers, some bikers and the occasional tandem bike riders will also be spotted. It is always a treat seeing two people on a tandem bike, because they have to be in sync with each other and the bike pedals in order to avoid a catastrophe. One of the families you may see riding around Whitefish Bay on their tandem bikes is the Gehred family.

Bob and Angie Gehred typically bike around the area with their two children, Max (14), and Charlotte (10), along for a family bike ride. While the entire family enjoys bike riding, Bob even commutes to work each day, year-round on a bicycle and has been doing so for over 10 years. His commute has changed with different jobs, but has included riding to Mequon, downtown Milwaukee, and now currently to Glendale at Brady Corporation, where he is a software engineer.

The Gehred family first became involved with life in Whitefish Bay when they joined Holy Family Parish. “We fell in love with this school and parish community after our first visit. We have made the best of friends here and love spending time with them volunteering at sporting events, enjoying family meals together, and a variety of social events,” said Bob. When the time had come to purchase a new house 6 years ago, Whitefish Bay was the obvious choice for it offered proximity to their kids school and family parish. Little did Angie know then, that it would also offer close proximity to her future school of employment.

In 2010, after being a stay-at-home mom for 9 years, Angie decided to put her Early Childhood Education degree to use, and return to the classroom as a preschool teacher at Tree of Life, located right on Silver Spring in Whitefish Bay. “All through college I worked at the UWM Childcare Center, and it was through that experience, that I received the building blocks of the kind of teacher I wanted to be. My focus in the classroom is engaging, playing and forming connections with the preschoolers,” said Angie. Because of the close proximity offered through living in Whitefish Bay, Angie is able to walk or ride her bike to Tree of Life for her days at the school. Of both living and working in the area, Angie says, “It really is a pleasure having many of my students be from Whitefish Bay, because I often encounter my former Tree of Life preschoolers around town. Their sweet smiling faces and energetic waving hands always brighten my day.”

Aside from biking, they stay busy with various sports, musical ambitions and lots of volunteering within the community. Bob is on the Athletic Board at Holy Family and also coaches basketball and volleyball for the school. Their son, Max, stays busy with soccer, volleyball, basketball, ultimate frisbee and is a trombone player. Their daughter, Charlotte, enjoys basketball, volleyball, competitive swimming for the North Shore Swim Club, and plays the flute. Luckily all the activities are local to Whitefish Bay, so often their children will walk or bike themselves to practice.

“Our favorite family activity is camping in tents. Bob and I both grew up camping and we started family camping when our children were infants. It was a challenge to keep them quiet in the middle of the evening to avoid waking other campers, but alas we all survived and now we camp every summer,” said Angie. Each summer they try to camp locally at least once, but also plan an out-of-state camping trip with the extended Gehred family. Since Bob is the youngest of 9 children, coordinating that many families schedules is no easy task. The family time and bonds formed amongst cousins make it well worth the effort. They have camped in numerous national parks including some in New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, California, Michigan, Arkansas, Florida and Oregon is their plan for 2016. “A location far away, or 24 hour straight drive doesn’t intimidate us into avoiding a certain location. Although this has become much easier as our children have become older,” said Bob.

Having now lived on their current block for 6 years, Bob and Angie enjoy the yearly traditions formed with their neighbors. The block does a yearly block party, numerous impromptu campfires and has a book club for the ladies. Throughout the year the block also has a party in July and one on Halloween, and of course shoveling snow in the winter months keeps everyone in touch.

Bob also hosts neighborhood ping-pong evenings, which have been known to go into the early morning hours.

The Gehred family loves the lifestyle offered by living in Whitefish Bay and their ability to live, work, and play all in one spot.

It Takes a Village . . . STORY SUBMITTED BY JILL FLOOD

If you drove near Cumberland Elementary school on the morning of November 18th, you may have been distracted by the sparkling balloons, over-sized birthday banner, and large crowd of well-wishers on the corner of Hampton and Marlborough. The crowds were gathered to wish crossing guard, Pat Josten, a happy 60th birthday!

Affectionately known as Ms. Pat, she has been working as a crossing guard in the community since 2010. She first began at the corner of Silver Spring and Santa Monica before moving to her current spot for the past three years. She quickly earned the admiration of students and respect of parents when it was evident that Pat takes her responsibility of pedestrian safety very seriously. Each morning and afternoon, children and adults are greeted by name as they pass through her crosswalks.

Pat wears many hats and also works as a lunch recess supervisor at Cumberland, and an evening supervisor for the WFB Recreation Department. Add to that the countless school events she volunteers for, and it is amazing the amount of time she spends giving back to the community. When a local mother learned of Pat’s milestone birthday, she saw an opportunity to give back to such a deserving volunteer. With the help of a few other families, signatures were collected on five cards and funds were collected to form a nice surprise gift. As a result, Pat was gifted with numerous very generous gift cards to local businesses, homemade cards, treats and even a golden whistle engraved with her name. She will also stay warm in the cold Wisconsin winter months thanks to the multiple boxes of hand and feet warmers she was given. After the morning celebration, Pat said, “This is definitely the most memorable celebration I’ve had in my 60 years! Nothing will ever compare to it!” When asked nearly a month later, Pat commented that each time she approaches the corner, she is moved by the outpouring of thoughtfulness and generosity.

Fasten your seat belt! The prime real estate selling season is about to take off. In fact, more listings are launched between April and June than any other quarter. We’re fortunate to have a healthy and vibrant real estate market. It speaks to the quality of life, great schools, and amazing sense of community in Whitefish Bay. However, getting sold quickly and at the best price still requires a great deal of skill and planning.

✓ Select A Good REALTOR® – Real estate transactions can be difficult and complex. They involve major financial, personal, and emotional decisions. Work with a REALTOR® that’s adept at the technical aspects of the transaction and has a comfortable working style.

✓ Start Early – There’s more to getting ready for sale than you think. Dozens of steps are involved before the first buyers visit. Meet with your REALTOR® at least 30 days before you launch. Establish the marketing plan, how to correctly prepare, and the best date to hit the market.

✓ Presentation Matters – Basic condition like the age of roof and mechanical systems are important. But it’s how you look that draws in prospective buyers – and their expectations are high! Channels like HGTV raise the visual bar. Since over 90% of buyers filter by looking at online photos, the right colors, fixtures, and decorating can make the difference between whether or not your home gets shown.

✓ Price Right – Price is the single most important factor to getting an offer. Always remember to price with your competition in mind. What you paid, how much invested, or what you need to get out of the sale are not relevant to buyers. It’s how you compare that matters. Strategic pricing will help you get the most money that the market will bear.

Getting an offer for your home is fun and exhilarating. Take the right steps and you will experience a rewarding Spring selling season.

MEMORIES OF THE WHITEFISH BAY SPEED SKATING CLUB  BY JOAN BRENK

Many years ago there was a very active Whitefish Bay Speed Skating Club which operated under the auspices of the Whitefish Bay Recreation Department (then known as the Community Services Department) headed by Director Dick Cooper. I know about it because our son, John, who was 12 years old in 1967, came home from school one winter day and asked if I could drive him to Washington Park for the Milwaukee County Novice Speed Skating meet the next Saturday.

I knew nothing about speed skating, but I went, got him registered, met some folks that I knew, learned about heat boxes, and tried to keep warm standing on the snowy embankment. The gun went off and I watched the 12-year-old class take off around the lagoon, with John considerably in the lead. That day he won gold medals in all his races and the prized trophy to boot.

After that race, Coach Bob Hanel, who was a teacher at Richards School for nearly 40 years, talked John into joining the Speed Skating Club. That was the beginning of our speed skating saga, standing on frozen bodies of water around the state and, on occasion, thankfully imbibing with other chilly parents of a shot of brandy to warm up at day’s end. (How I wished then that John had taken up competitive swimming instead.)

The Speed Skating Club practiced and held its meets at Cahill Park. At first the Village’s Public Works Department flooded the tennis courts at Cahill. That later gave way to flooding a section of the field west of the courts. There were many families involved with the Bay’s Speed Skating Club in the 50s, 60s, and 70s. Family names that come to mind (at the risk of omission of many wonderful people) are Ryan, Morris, Webster, Johannes, Belanti, Strawn, True, Hentzen, Broadnax, Weisel, and Zuckerman. Most important was the club president, oral surgeon Edmund “Doc” Sauer and his wife Anita. Their son, Phil, had become involved in 1958 when he was just six years old. They were always there to bolster the skaters, explain procedures, and secure the many details.

The uniforms were two-piece wool outfits, worn over street clothes, which were distributed by the club and returned at the end of the season for cleaning and storing. This, of course, was a far cry from the sleek, high-tech, wind-resistant suits of today. The club also had a skate exchange where outgrown skates could be sold at discount to others in need. Many of the mothers operated a concession stand in the Cahill building during meets and practices selling sloppy joes, Twinkies and Ho Ho’s which helped cover the cost of expenses like medals, trophies, uniforms, and travel.

Ice was the biggest problem. Cold weather was needed to maintain the ice and sometimes a thaw cancelled skating. In 1970 public works employees, in a job action linked to stalled union contract negotiations, refused to flood the rinks. Volunteers did the job instead, and my husband, Ed Brenk, who was then club president, was quoted in the Milwaukee Sentinel saying, “I feel that as volunteers we can go in and use property I consider partially mine as a taxpayer.” Our garbage was not picked up for the next few weeks.

The Whitefish Bay Open Meet brought skaters from around the state. The Ryans, who lived across the street from Cahill on Marlborough, would secure a trailer for use by the judges which also acted as a wind break on very cold days. Other meets were held in Oconomowoc, West Allis, Madison and Waupaca. For the long-distance trips, the club would rent a bus for transportation.

The Great Lakes meet was held at Washington Park and attracted skaters from Illinois, Missouri, Minnesota, Michigan, and Wisconsin. It featured top flight competitors, including Eric Heiden of Madison against whom my son, John, skated. Eric went on to win five gold medals in the 1980 Olympics in Lake Placid, NY. The Whitefish Bay Speed Skating Club also produced its own stars, including Thom Weisel, who competed nationally, and Angela Zuckerman, who skated in two Olympics.

The Whitefish Bay Speed Skating Club eventually disbanded due to the decline of short track, “pack-style” speed skating (where several competitors race against each other) in favor of long track, “metric-style” speed skating on 400-meter oval rinks (where two skaters race against the clock). But during those days, so long ago, many Whitefish Bay people helped to make the sport a memorable experience. Coaching was so important and after Bob Hanel we had coaches Phil Sauer, Dave Webster and others to thank for creating many fond memories for the rest of us.

Ever since Lyndon B. Johnson was president, February has been declared American Heart Month. According to a recent Federal declaration, “cardiovascular disease—including heart disease, stroke, and high blood pressure— is responsible for one out of every three deaths. It is the No. 1 killer of American men and women, and it is a leading cause of serious illness and disability.”

The National Institute of Health (NIH), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and the American Heart Association (AHA) offer some helpful tips for identifying warning signs that you should seek help immediately. Some of them include:

- Chest discomfort- most heart attacks involve some form of discomfort in the center of the chest that lasts more than a few minutes, or that goes away and comes back. It can feel like and uncomfortable pressure, squeezing, fullness or pain.

- Discomfort in other areas of the upper body- symptoms can include pain or discomfort in one or both arms, the back, neck, jaw or stomach.

- Shortness of breath— difficulty catching your breath with or without chest discomfort.

- Other signs- other signs might include breaking out in a cold sweat, nausea, lightheadedness or persistent unexplained weakness or changes in level of consciousness.

It is important to note that diabetics and women often experience symptoms that present differently than others. Each individual knows their own body better than anyone else; if something doesn’t feel right, seek help immediately. Learn the signs, but remember this: Even if you’re not sure it’s a heart attack, have it checked out (tell a doctor about your symptoms). Minutes matter! Fast action can save lives—maybe your own. Call 9-1-1 immediately.

Calling 9-1-1 is almost always the fastest way to get lifesaving treatment. North Shore Fire/Rescue EMT’s and Paramedics can begin treatment when they arrive, up to an hour sooner than if someone gets to the hospital by car. First responders are also trained to revive someone whose heart has stopped. It is best to call EMS for rapid transport to the emergency room. Once heart muscle is starved of oxygen long enough that it begins to die, it cannot be repaired or replaced, so it is imperative that you get help early!

For questions about the services or programs offered by North Shore Fire/Rescue, including CPR training and certification offerings, please visit our website www.nsfire.org or call our Community Risk Reduction Bureau at 414-357-0113 ext. 1513.
WHITEFISH BAY BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT (BID)

WHY DO YOU LOVE TO SHOP WHITEFISH BAY?

BY KAREN MATHU, DIRECTOR

We recently asked Silver Spring Drive customers that very question, "Why do you love to Shop Whitefish Bay?" Given that this is the season to show love, we are happy to share some of these sentiments from your friends and neighbors!

"East Silver Spring Drive in Whitefish Bay offers everything from tasty bakery and other treats, pharmacy needs, an excellent grocery store, home furnishings, restaurants, great coffee shops - everything you could need within a short walk of our homes!" — Marlene Jaglinski

"I enjoy shopping at so many of the different stores along the Silver Spring Drive. I’ve enjoyed meeting Jessica and John from Fringe to help spruce up my home, Three Wishes and Oro di Oliva, RedCap Luggage, Winkie’s and New Options for fabulous gifts for others and myself, Elements for a relaxing massage, Schwanne for something all year long, Fitzgerald’s for being a local medical expert, Sendik’s (who doesn’t go there?) and Gallery 505 -- just bought a great piece from Tom and his crew. Enjoying the additions to the food choice options of Roman Candle, City Market and The Bay and of course who hasn’t done dinner and a movie at the Fox Bay? Excited that new businesses are joining the street - would love to have even more options and restaurants to choose from!" — Kelly Wood

"Why do we shop Silver Spring Drive? What comes to mind immediately is the Saturday morning walk we take from Lexington to Silver Spring. Our mission is Bruegger’s or the bakery for coffee and breakfast. We have our dog, Brownie with us and head to the farmer’s market after. My favorite store is Sendik’s! I love the employees and the great selection of food!" — Kelly Wood

"I am in a store on Silver Spring almost every day – the grocery, salon services, travel needs, gifts and stationery, school supplies, the list is endless. My family and I are very fortunate to live so close to a business area that offers excellent options for so many things we need and use in our lives." — Tracy Rothman

"We are fortunate to have a variety of wonderful shopping destinations within walking distance. We appreciate local business and frequent many shops including Hounds Around Town, Yellow Wood, Bay Bakery and Winkie’s." — Mary Van Volkinburg

"We love being able to walk or ride our bikes up to Silver Spring to see a movie, grab a bite to eat, or shop for a gift." — Colleen Buckley

"Whitefish Bay is one of the few communities in the state where we can live within walking distance of so many great family-owned small businesses. I shop on Silver Spring Drive as much as possible because I know more of my money stays in the community than if I go to a large chain store for what I need. I also see these businesses giving back to the community all the time." — Melissa Ugland

"I love doing as such of my holiday shopping right here in WFB among the shops on Silver Spring. This decision is driven not only by the “shop local” aspect, but because of the uniqueness and quality of the things the shops offer that you just can't find in a Big Box store. Whether it’s a quality piece of luggage from RedCap, something for my mom, or all the things we’ll need for my husband to make an amazing holiday meal I can find it right here in the Bay." — Lisa Dresselyhus

"We love that Whitefish Bay offers a lot of conveniences, all within walking distance of our home. We regularly utilize Aurora Health Care, The Bay, New Options, Bruegger’s, RedCap, City Market, and Cutting Group. Our teen-age son has allowance money at BMO Bank, purchased bikes and snowboards at Erik’s, goes to his tutor (Lance Granholm) after school, and sees movies with friends at Fox Bay. And who doesn’t love the social aspects of shopping village traditions, that being, Sendik’s and Winkie’s!" — Mike and Crystal Luehne

Keep up with your amazing local businesses and so much more through regular emails from the shopping district using this QR code or by visiting www.shopwhitefishbay.com. Or follow us on Twitter @ShopWFB and Facebook!

Let our family be part of your family story!
As we celebrate Valentine’s Day, instead of showing your pet how much you love them by buying them some treats or a new toy, think about getting them vaccinated instead.

Many people think that vaccines are optional after puppy or kitten shots. Or that since their dog or cat stays on their property that they are safe from illness spread by other animals. Often the cost and hassle of a visit to the veterinarian are the reason that vaccines are not given regularly.

Unfortunately, at MADACC we see many animals every year that are sick and near death from easily preventable diseases like Parvovirus. People do not realize that they can be transmitting diseases to animals in their own home from interacting with animals in public places or even inadvertently walking through an area that an infected animal might have used to relieve itself. Your dog or cat needs to be up to date on rabies, and that is required by law. The first rabies vaccine given to your animal will be good for a year. Booster vaccines given after that will be good for three years.

For dogs, it is recommended to get them “core vaccines” regularly. You and your vet can decide if they need to be done yearly or not, but these vaccines are recommended for all puppies and dogs. The diseases involved have significant morbidity and mortality and are widely distributed and vaccination results in relatively good protection from disease. These core vaccines include protection from canine parvovirus (CPV), canine distemper virus (CDV) and canine adenovirus (CAV). Your vet will often refer to this vaccine as a combo vaccine. Dogs that are boarded or go to groomers should also get a bordetella vaccine, commonly referred to as a “kennel cough” vaccine. Those are often needed to be updated every 6 months or at least two weeks before a boarding or grooming appointment. For cats, the core feline vaccines are those for feline herpesvirus 1 (FHV1), feline calicivirus (FCV), feline panleukopenia virus (FPV). Again, this will be referred to as a combo vaccine by most veterinarians.

Both MADACC and Wisconsin Humane Society hold periodic low cost vaccine clinics throughout the year for all Milwaukee County residents. MADACC holds a large one late every March to coincide with the end of the licensing grace period before the late fee kicks in. Please go to our website www.madacc.org or call 414-649-8640 for more information and to make an appointment to attend this clinic to ensure your animal is protected and does not succumb to an easily preventable disease.
